ice breaker

Use one of the following questions to open up discussion. (If you have first-time guests, be sure to have people tell their names as they answer the icebreaker question.)

- 1 What possession would be the hardest for you to give up?
- 2 Who was the best friend you ever had? What was special about him/her?

Our Study: Multiplying Multi-Sites

objectives: As small group members and guests, we will:

1. Recognize that God wants His goodness to spread everywhere.
2. Realize that God invites us to partner with Him to reach our world through multi-sites.
3. Consider what our next step might be in becoming involved in multiplying God's kingdom.

study/prayer time: *Please feel free to adjust this study to fit your group's needs and to the direction of the Holy Spirit. It is not necessary to use all of the questions.

1. Spend time in groups of two or three to pray for your friends who need Jesus.
2. Ask several volunteers to read Genesis 22:1-18. What stands out to you in this story about Abraham and Isaac?
3. How does this example of Abraham and Isaac speak to your life today? Where do you get the strength to say "Yes" to God when everything else inside of you says "No"?
4. Hap used Genesis 22:17-18 as the foundation for God wanting to bless and multiply us through multi-sites. What have you seen God multiply in your own life?
5. Discuss why you think God is using multi-sites in this generation to reach people outside of God's family.
6. What do you think the biggest challenge will be for us continuing to plant multi-sites throughout Central Illinois and beyond?
7. Discuss Hap's word that God wants to re-plant the Urbana campus. Explain why or why not this motivates you.
8. Hap mentioned there will be many new openings at the Urbana campus. What is God calling you to do in regard to restarting the Urbana campus?
9. After a time of worship, take time as a group to be quiet and just listen to the Holy Spirit. What is he saying to individuals? What is he saying to you as a group? Break into smaller groups to minister to and pray for one another.
